

I'm really upset that Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing their stations to air this anti-Kerry documentary days before the election without any equal time for the Kerry campaign to respond.

The airwaves are public and should serve public needs. I really think the FCC should step in here and look at whether this documentary is in fact "news" or whether it is a campaign contribution in-kind to Bush.